A Comparison of Central & South
American Countries

The Tax Committee of AGN in Central & South America promotes the collection of information that is relevant for the international trade.

This document contains a summary and general information about the main taxes of the countries in the AGN International - Central & South America Region.

The information is addressed to international entities that are considering making investment in any of these countries, in a way that can quickly identify business indicators that are relevant for their purposes.

This publication does not contain the extensive or detailed level of information required to make any decisions on investments in CSA countries. In that sense, if you are planning to do any type of action in the region, please contact professionals in the AGN firms that will provide you legal, tax and accounting advice specific to your particular case.

The information presented is current as of January 1, 2022.
